

High-Level meeting

The OECD Anti-Bribery Convention: Its Impact and Its Achievements

---

Tenth Anniversary of OECD Anti-Bribery Convention

21 November 2007
Rome, Italy

Draft agenda

Draft agenda

9:00-9:30	Welcoming and opening remarks
	Welcoming remarks Mr. Romano Prodi, Prime Minister, Italy and Mr. Clemente Mastella, Minister of Justice, Italy Opening remarks Mr. Angel Gurría, OECD Secretary-General
9:30-11:30	State Parties' commitment to fight foreign bribery
Chair:	Mr. Angel Gurría, OECD Secretary-General Ms. Geraldine Fraser-Moleketi, Minister for the Public Service and Administration, South Africa Mr. Lutz Diwell, Justice Secretary of State, Germany Dr. Maria Berger, Minister of Justice, Austria Mr. Jorge Hage Sobrinho, Ministro de Estado do Controle e da Transparência, Brazil Mr. JongBaek Lee, Chairman, Korea Independent Commission against Corruption, Republic of Korea Ms. Alice S. Fisher, Assistant Attorney General, United States Mr. Sotirios Hatzigakis Minister of Justice, Greece Mr. Kunio Hatoyama, Minister of Justice, Japan Mr. Salvatore Vega, Minister for Public Administration, Mexico

9:30-11:30

State Parties' commitment to fight foreign bribery (cont'd)

Mr. Atle Leikvoll,

Deputy Secretary General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Norway

Lord Davidson of Glen Clova,

Advocate General for Scotland, United Kingdom

Mr. Mehmet Ali Şahin,

Minister of Justice of the Republic of Turkey

Presentations will address:

- 1) The importance of the Convention and government actions and achievements over the last decade to prevent, detect and sanction foreign bribery.
- 2) Political will to intensify efforts to fight bribery of foreign public officials by all means individually and collectively.
- 3) Desire to continue working together as well as with business and civil society to enhance joint efforts to effectively enforce the Convention.
- 4) Encourage major emerging economic players not party to the Convention to adhere to its standards.

11:30 - 11:45

Adoption of the 10th Anniversary Statement

Presentation of the 10th Anniversary Statement

Prof. Mark Pieth,

Chairman of the OECD Working Group on Bribery

11.45 - 12.15

Break

12:15 - 13:00

Changes in the global business environment

Chair:

Mrs. Thelma Askey,

OECD Deputy Secretary-General

Mr. Alan L. Boeckmann,

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Fluor Corporation

Mr. Juan Jose Daboub,

Managing Director, World Bank

Mr. Ignazio Angeloni,

President, SACE, Italy

Mrs. Huguette Labelle,

Chair, Transparency International

Presentations will address:

- 1) The OECD Anti-Bribery Convention's impact on business.
- 2) Actions by business to prevent corruption and enhance integrity, fair dealing, proper accounting, corporate governance and transparency.
- 3) Changes over the last 10 years. Has worldwide business become more fair and what remains to be done to improve awareness and grant the effectiveness of international anti-bribery standards.
- 4) Need for governments and non-government partnerships to monitor foreign bribery risk, especially in corruption-prone areas.

13:00 –13:30

International Co-operation and major emerging economies

Chair:

Mrs. Thelma Askey,
OECD Deputy Secretary-General

Mr. Cui Hairong,
Director General of the Fourth Investigation Department of the Ministry of Supervision of P. R. China

Mr. Taufiequrachaman Ruki,
Chairman and Co-commissioner, Corruption Eradication Commission, Indonesia

Professor Daniel Friedmann,
Minister of Justice, Israel

Mr. Alexander Yakovenko,
Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Russia

Presentations will address:

- 1) Significant regional and international anti-corruption instruments in force worldwide.
- 2) Identification of practices, mechanisms and strategies to facilitate and enhance international co-operation based on the worldwide commitments to fight corruption.
- 3) How to enhance adherence by emerging non-Parties to the OECD anti-bribery standards.
- 4) Suggestions for closer collaboration with the Working Group on Bribery, the body responsible for monitoring the enforcement of the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention.

13:30-13:45

Closing of the High Level Conference

Mr. Achille Serra,
High Commissioner Against Corruption, Italy

Following conclusions, a picture of all High Level representatives and participants in the Conference will be taken to commemorate the 10th Anniversary of OECD Anti-Bribery Convention.