The Deputy Prime Minister of Montenegro

Meets the President of Anac Busia

The Deputy Prime Minister of Montenegro, Dritan Abazovic, in Rome to attend the meeting of the Global Anti-Daesh Coalition, will meet the President of Anac Giuseppe Busia on June 28th. Vice Premier Abazovic has responsibility for security, the fight against corruption.

The meeting is aimed at discussing the possibilities and methods of deepening bilateral relations in terms of the fight against corruption.

Italy has always been among the most staunch supporters of Montenegro's approach to the European Union. To this end, it has concretely collaborated in the "Rule of Law", a sector in which - as the Montenegrin authorities themselves recognize - Italy represents a point of reference.
